- 8.3 Complaints or incident reports should be submitted within 72 hours after the alleged violation occurred unless there are extenuating circumstances requiring a longer timeframe.
- 8.4 The Proctor or the Proctorial Committee may review and investigate the complaint to determine if the allegations have factual merit, to identify violations of the student conduct policy, and to impose sanctions for such violations. The recommendations of the Proctor/the Proctorial Committee will be submitted to the Disciplinary Committee for appropriate action.

9. Sanctions.

The subsequent sub-paragraph elaborates the types of sanctions that may be imposed upon any student or any student's club found to have violated the southeast University Students' Code of Conduct:

9.1 Disciplinary Warning:

It is a notice to the student that his/her conduct was questionable and that future breaches will be treated more severely. The warning may be issued verbally or in writing that a student has violated provisions of the Code of Conduct or failed to meet some aspect of the university's standards and expectations. This will be recorded in his/her academic file.

9.2 Disciplinary Probation:

It is used for repeated violations or a specific violation of a serious nature as a first course of action. This may be imposed for a specific period of time. A student who is under disciplinary probation will not be permitted to participate in intramural, intercollegiate or any student club activities. A Student receiving tuition waiver/scholarships for any activities enumerated above may have that scholarship suspended or terminated.

9.3 Disciplinary Sanctions:

The student will be required to complete an educational service, attend counseling or have restricted privileges.

9.4 Disciplinary Suspension:

Suspension of the student from the University for a pre-determined period of time. The student may be allowed to return to the university once specified conditions for re-admission are met. The student may not allowed to attend classes, use university facilities, participate in or attend university's activities, or be employed by the university during his/her suspension. Disciplinary suspension is a matter of record in the students file.

9.5 Disciplinary Expulsion:

The student will be expelled from the university immediately. The student will not be permitted to continue his or her studies at the university and may not return to the university or activities at any time or for any reason. Disciplinary expulsion will be recorded in the student's transcript.

9.6 Restitution to the University:

Compensation for loss or damage to property leased, owned or controlled by the university. This may take the form of monetary or material replacement. This may be imposed separately or in addition to other sanctions.

9.7 Temporary or Interim Suspension:

An interim suspension is a temporary removal of a student from the University Campus. It may be imposed upon a student by a Department Head (Academic) or the Proctor or his/her delegate. There should have reasonable cause to believe that the student is an immediate threat to the safety of persons, property or essential functions of the university. The person who imposed the interim suspension on the student must notify the Disciplinary Committee in writing by the next working day for subsequent action. A student who has been issued an interim suspension is denied access to university campus (including classes) and to all other university activities until an official enquiry is conducted by the Disciplinary Committee. The hearing shall severally be held within 5(five) working days of the notice of suspension.

Suspension is an outcome of the student conduct. Any student who has been suspended from the university has been offered/afforded due process including the opportunity to participate in a hearing to determine the appropriate consequences of his/her behavior.

9.8 Offences Related to Theft, Stealing, Cyber Crime and Terrorist Connection
