

Declaration of CUCAS Scholarship Refund Policy

We, CUCAS(北京世华易网教育科技有限公司) is now offering scholarship application service to students who want to apply scholarships in China.

In order to avoid casual applications and make sure we offer scholarship to those in need. We charge $500 (might be changed under different circumstances) scholarship application service fee before the application start.

If the scholarship application failed, the scholarship applicants could get refund of the 60% of service fee or one chance to apply scholarship for another university for free. Note: People who have paid or signed contract with CUCAS before March 1, 2016 will still follow the refund policy as previously mentioned. (Some scholarships are nonrefundable, please check the FAQ part of a scholarship page carefully before you apply.)

Applicants who cheat CUCAS on documents, information or failed to provide documents in time, or refuse to accept scholarship after got accepted by university, will not get refund.

This declaration takes effect as from today, and we would like to bear all legal responsibilities if we failed to comply.
